

Greetings from U.S. Embassy Beirut!

The U.S. Embassy in Beirut has provided funds to Amideast to establish and operate the American Corner Beirut.

The American Corner Beirut is a free-of-charge facility that offers English language, educational, skill-building, and cultural programming. Whether someone wants to conduct research on the United States, improve his/her English language, discover a scholarship, or enhance particular skills, the American Corner is the right destination!

Students/contacts are encouraged to follow the American Corner's social media accounts to learn more about the current and upcoming activities.
