

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you on behalf of the recruitment office in Jal el Dib- Bkennaya sector of the Lebanese Red cross, EMS section.

As you may know, the Lebanese Red Cross is a humanitarian organization that provides emergency assistance, disaster relief, and education to people in need. Our volunteers play a crucial role in providing these services to their communities, and we are always looking for dedicated individuals to join our team.

We believe that the Lebanese University is an excellent platform to reach out to potential volunteers , and we would like to request if you could possibly send an email to all the LU-faculty of law students stating that we are currently recruiting new volunteers in Jal el Dib-Bkennaya branch, and to fill out the following form if they are interested to join:

Our volunteers come from all backgrounds, and we believe that everyone can make a difference in their communities.

We would be grateful for your support in this endeavor.

Thank you for your consideration.
